REQUIRED TOOLS FOR SUCCESS: Paper, pencils, pens, a positive attitude, composition notebook.

EXPECTATIONS OF STUDENTS:

1. Be Prompt. This means sitting in his or her assigned seat before the bell rings, quietly working on the assignment for the day. This also means turning in assignments in a timely manner. Unless prior arrangements have been made, late work is unacceptable for a successful student.
2. Be Prepared. Each student is responsible for bringing all his or her materials to class. Additionally, a successful learning experience takes three! (Teacher, Student and God). There are three tips that can help a student be prepared each day, which include a good night's rest, personal time with God each morning, and a healthy breakfast.
3. Be Respectful and Kind. Students are expected to be kind and respectful to fellow classmates and teachers. There will be no tolerance with bullying in the classroom or outside.
4. Be Engaged. Give nothing but the very best. Participate in class discussion. Ask questions to learn, as opposed to debate. Seek to be excellent in all assignments. Anything less than the student's best work will be returned with a request to resubmit the assignment.
5. Be a Model BCA Student. "Higher than the highest human thought can reach, is God's ideal for His children." (Ed. p.18) As a teacher, I desire each student to reach the highest potential spiritually and academically. Each student will be responsible for the guidelines and policies that are in the Battle Creek Academy Student Handbook. I will follow the same guidelines and policies in my classroom.

COURSE CONTENT

Journals/Bell work

Class will begin each day with 3-5 minutes of bell work. This will generally involve the students retrieving their journals, reading their assigned book and writing quietly. Students will be required to work quietly until time is called for each class period to begin.

Homework/Reflections

Homework will be assigned as needed to reinforce classroom instruction. Weekly reflections submitted to Bible will also be given English grade based on the connected thought and personal application.

Articles

As students submit their weekly article reviews for science, students will also receive an English grade for proper citation, reference list of source, and proper identification of thesis statement.

PROJECTS: Reading

Students will be asked to read the book Prophets and Kings for the year. There will be NO weekly reading log. The weekly benefit of reading will be dependent on the student. Each quarter the student will be expected to complete a book report on one of the chapters. Preapproval is required for chapter and the project. Book reports can be done in a variety of formats, but no format may be repeated in a given semester. Formats include but are not limited to:

- A physical re-creation of one of the pivotal scenes of the book
- A movie trailer
- A radio broadcast
- A timeline
- A news report
- A character resume
- Rewrite the book as a third grade picture book

- Write an alternate ending
- A game
- A speech one of the characters might give
- A brochure advertising the book
- A book poster
- Any creative idea, as long as you get it approved ahead of time.

PROJECTS: Team

Increasingly, employers are interested to know how well a person is able to work on a team. Therefore, an emphasis will be placed on group work (i.e. team projects). Students will be given projects periodically throughout the year that must be completed as a team. Students will receive a grade for the team project, as well as individual grades for input and participation.

Exams/Quizzes

Because a large part of English is literature, homework will quite often involve reading for class. Reading takes quite a bit of time, and often will require out of class time to complete. Students are strongly encouraged to keep up with assigned reading, as intelligent class discussion cannot take place if students do not know the material. I reserve the right to give a quiz at the beginning of the following class period when reading has been assigned the previous day. There will be time for review at the beginning of each class period. Final exams are cumulative.

Papers

Every paper, regardless of what assignment it is fulfilling, must be typed in basic APA format. This includes heading (Student Name, Teacher Name, Assignment, Date) in a column in the top left hand corner of the paper, and a header containing the student's last name and the page number on the top right hand side. Example:

John Smith Ms. Knapp Essay 08/31/2018	Smith 2

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is defined as taking anyone's work from any source and passing it off as your own. This includes music, video, and other media, as well as written work. Plagiarism of any kind will not be tolerated. The first time plagiarism is discovered, the assignment containing the plagiarism will be returned, and the student will be required to completely redo that assignment in order to get a grade. After the first time, any time plagiarism is discovered, the work will be given a zero and the student will not be allowed to resubmit it for a grade.

Media

This class will involve media of all kinds. Students will be viewing and analyzing media, as well as creating media of their own. It is imperative that students keep Christian principles (Philippians 4:8) as a guide at all times while creating or exploring media. This includes, but is not limited to video, print sources, audio, and still photography. Any media creation that a student completes is the property of BCA and may be posted online via a social media site.

Late Work

Late work is unacceptable. Any work that is submitted after it is called for will be eligible to receive only 50% of the available credit. There are very few exceptions to this rule, except sudden illness. For any prearranged excused absences, work must be turned in before the student leaves unless prior arrangements have been made. If a student has not completed an assignment when it is due, they will be asked to submit a missing homework form stating the reason the homework was not completed on time. This form will be kept on file as a record of missing work. If a student submits the assignment late, a copy of the form will be attached to it when it is returned.
